It is further alleged as to Counts 1, 2, 3 and 4, that the offenses were not discovered until after

March 24, 2010. The Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office commenced an investigation of the City of Bell on May 6, 2009, based upon a letter signed by a confidential source alleging voter misconduct in the City of Bell. During the course of that investigation, District Attorney Investigator Maria Grimaldo conducted an interview of Victor Bello on March 24, 2010, during which time Mr. Bello revealed that he was receiving approximately $100,000 compensation for his duties as the director of a food bank, which was commensurate with the amount he was paid when he was a City Council member. A public records request was made by Head Deputy District Attorney Dave Demerjian on ~~May 18, 2010~~ April 16, 2010, sent to ~~Robert Rizzo~~ ~~Robert~~ Rebecca Valdez at the City of Bell, seeking the pay records for members of the Bell City Council. Incomplete records were received. Investigative Grand Jury subpoenas were issued, and records demonstrating the compensation for council members were then received.

Prior to the interview of Mr. Bello, information that might have led to discovery of the crimes had not and could not have been reasonably discovered by law enforcement or a government official with supervisory authority. The crimes were committed by persons who would otherwise have been responsible for reporting it, specifically the past and present members of the City Council.
