ORDER

AND NOW, June 26, 2012, it appearing that a protective order is required to assure the integrity of ongoing criminal investigations, to protect the privacy of victims who testified in the criminal trial, and to protect the privacy of others who may testify, or who have testified, before the Investigating Grand Jury; and upon consent of all counsel; and in conjunction with the Supervising Judge of the Investigative Grand Jury; and pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 573((F); it is ordered as follows:

1. That no material provided by the Commonwealth to the Defendant's attorneys or to any member of the defense team (whether supplied as mandatory discovery, discretionary discovery, Brady material or otherwise) and which was not made part of the record during the trial of the case, shall not be disclosed to any person or entity not directly involved in the defense of the Defendant's criminal prosecution.
2. That counsel for the defense shall provide to the Court and to the Supervising Judge of the Grand Jury, under oath, within 10 days, an inventory identifying all materials supplied in discovery and which was subsequently delivered to any member of the defense team (exclusive of counsel and immediate office staff) or to any other person or entity, in order to assist this Court and the Investigating Grand Jury to take appropriate action to address the interests sought to be protected by this order.¹

By the Court:

John M. Cleland, S.J.
Specially Presiding

¹ Any reciprocal order directed to members of the prosecution team will fall within the prerogative of the Supervising Judge of the Investigating Grand Jury.
